

The Memory Collectors

by Dete Meserve

1. The Unanswered Question: All four of the Memory Collectors had an unresolved question from their past. Is there a mystery or secret from your past that still haunts you? How would you spend an hour going back to that moment to seek the answers you never got?
2. The One Who Got Away: Andy wanted to find his first love, Kate, who disappeared after a whirlwind romance. Who in your life did you lose touch with but wish you could speak to again? What would you say or ask if you had just one hour with them?
3. The Unforgiveable Mistake: Brooke looks for an hour of relief from the guilt of an unforgiveable mistake. Is there something you regret that you wish you could take back? How would going back to that hour change things for you now?
4. An Hour of Adventure: Logan craves the rush of adrenaline from surfing and mountain climbing, yearning to reclaim the freedom he lost. Is there a spontaneous adventure you took that you'd like to revisit?
5. A Second Chance: Nearly all the Memory Collectors get a second chance at relationships that had gone awry. Is there a person or relationship you let go of too soon that you'd like to revisit?
6. A Moment of Joy: Recall an hour when you felt pure happiness. What was that moment, and how would you relive it differently knowing what you know now?
7. A Conversation: If you could have one more conversation with someone from your past, who would it be and why? What would you say to them?

8. An Hour of Courage: Think of a moment when fear held you back. If you could return to that moment for an hour, how would you face your fear differently?
9. The Question Left Unasked: Is there a question you've always wished you had asked someone? If you could go back and ask it, what do you think or hope the answer would be?
10. An Hour of Gratitude: Is there someone in your past who helped shape your life, but you never had the chance to thank? How would you use an hour to express gratitude?
11. An Hour with Your Younger Self: If you could spend an hour with a younger version of yourself, what advice, comfort, or warning would you give them?
